

Hello Alumni!

As we head into finals and the holiday season, USC APALSA is excited to end the school year on a high note. Our USC Law t-shirt and sweatshirt presales are about to begin, and we've also teamed up with UCLA, Pepperdine, Southwestern, and Loyola for our Inter-APALSA mixer on November 23, at Barney's Beanery at 8pm.

A special thanks to all of you who showed up to our alumni mixer last month! The next alumni gathering will be our famous APALSA karaoke event, to be held sometime in January...which should give you all plenty of time to practice your showpieces!

The rest of this newsletter offers a brief recap of our October events.

Happy holidays from USC APALSA!

Litigation v. Transactional Event

Michael Kerr, partner at Mayer Brown, LLP.

We had a great turnout for our Transactional v. Litigation presentation. Warren Loui spoke about life as a transactional attorney, while Michael Kerr shared his take on being a litigator. The students in the audience also took advantage of a Q and A session to gain more perspective on their future career choices.

China Law Event

Robert Allan and Julia Zhu offered students a brief overview of the career opportunities currently available for American lawyers in Beijing, Shanghai, Hong Kong, and also South Korea.

Robert J. Allan, managing partner of Alpha & Leader US

Julia Zhu, associate at the USA China Law Group, US office

After sharing stories about their extensive experiences and legal careers in Asia, Mr. Allan and Ms. Zhu offered career strategies for students interested in building their own careers in Asia. Mr. Allan and Ms. Zhu presented practical tips about securing internships abroad and adapting to life in Asia, discussed the marketability of attorneys who go abroad, and also extolled the career benefits of learning a country's native language.

This event was sponsored by a donation from USA Chinalaw, an international law firm.
