ASIAN PACIFIC AMERICAN LAW STUDENT ASSOCIATION

Volume 3

Number 1

September 2007

699 Exposition Blvd. Los Angeles, CA

Hello USC Alumni!

Welcome to a new year for the Asian Pacific American Law Student Association (APALSA) at USC Law School. This bi-monthly newsletter is intended to update you on our upcoming events and to facilitate the development of a rich alumni-member network across our shared interests and goals. USC APALSA has many exciting events planned for this year, from a workshop on China law, to a USC pre-law outreach program, to an ongoing speaker series on legal issues facing the Asian Pacific American community today. If you would like to contribute your suggestions, knowledge, or time to any of our endeavors, please feel free to contact alumni@uscapalsa.com. We are looking forward to a great year together.

Helming USC APALSA this year are our 2007-2008 USC APALSA Board members:

L-R: Lawrence Chan (Social Chair), Claire Koh (Academic Chair), Peter Park (Treasurer), Helen Hsueh (Alumni Chair), David Wu (Webmaster/Historian),Carolynn Beck (President), Vivian Chen (External VP), Ning Ji (Community Service Chair), Judy Suwatanapongched (Internal VP), Alan Tse (Secretary).

Get Involved!

- Shape young legal minds at USC! We're working to revive the APALSA Alumni mentoring program at USC. If you're interested in becoming a mentor, please complete our 'Alumni Mentoring' document and email it to alumni@uscapalsa.com by October 19.
- Share your experiences! We're currently working on a speaker series on "Alternative Careers After Law School." If you'd like to speak at USC on this topic, please email evp@uscapalsa.com.
- Volunteer with APALSA! We're working on a new partnership with Street Law to teach inner-city high school students about the impact of the law. For more information, check out the Street Law document and contact community@uscapalsa.com.
